

Earthy and Ethereal
Words and Music Gary M. Wollman

Earthy and ethereal
So of this world yet it seems
So unreal

Earthy and ethereal
Held in high esteem
Pas' the material

Lights you up like a sunbeam
Still holds you as you dream
Known to float on upstream
You (vow to) recreate the scene

That sweeps above the plane she goes
Taking you where're she knows

Earthy and ethereal
So of this world yet it seems
So unreal

Much like some kind of miracle
Keeping secrets
She's willing to reveal

Love and compassion will always be in fashion
For those who will to see

How she brings two worlds together
Without clashing is a mystery to me

Living life consciously
Fulfilling her destiny

Seemingly impossible
To keep grounded in the world today

She makes the model of
How to let our better angels have their say
Earthy and ethereal

Earthy and ethereal
So of this world yet it seems
So unreal

Earthy and ethereal
Held in high esteem
Pas' the material

Earthy and ethereal
